

ABIM Request for New Comfort Aid Accommodations

Use this form if you are requesting comfort aids only. Comfort aids are small, medically necessary items that require pre-approval prior to being taken in the testing room. See Comfort aids that do not require pre-approval.

For other requests, see New Accommodations Request Form.

Note: Candidates must register for the exam prior to requesting accommodations.

Section A: Personal Information

Please complete the following information:

First name: _____

Last name: _____

ABIM ID number: _____

Current phone number: _____

Current email address: _____

Section B: Exam Information

Title of exam (Internal Medicine or subspecialty) you are currently registered for:

Check the corresponding box to indicate which exam type you are currently registered for:

Initial Certification

Maintenance of Certification (MOC)

Knowledge Check-In (KCI)

Section C: Accommodations Requested

Please specify which comfort aids you are requesting:

Section D: Confirmation Please check boxes below to verify you have:

Completed the Personal Information section of this form

Registered for your exam

Attached supporting documentation from your treating physician to this form

ABIM comfort aid accommodation requests and supporting documentation must be submitted by the registration deadline to: accommodations@abim.org.

Note: candidates approved for comfort aids only must sit for the exam during the standard exam date. Additional details regarding accommodations and submission deadlines are available on ABIM's website in the Certification section and MOC section.