

American Board of Internal Medicine®

WHERE DOES THE MONEY GO?

Revenue & Expenses

EXPENSES $54 Million (FY 2020)

Expenses include salaries, overhead and other out-of-pocket costs.

Exam Development

Question writing for Certification and MOC exams in 20 specialties.

Program Oversight

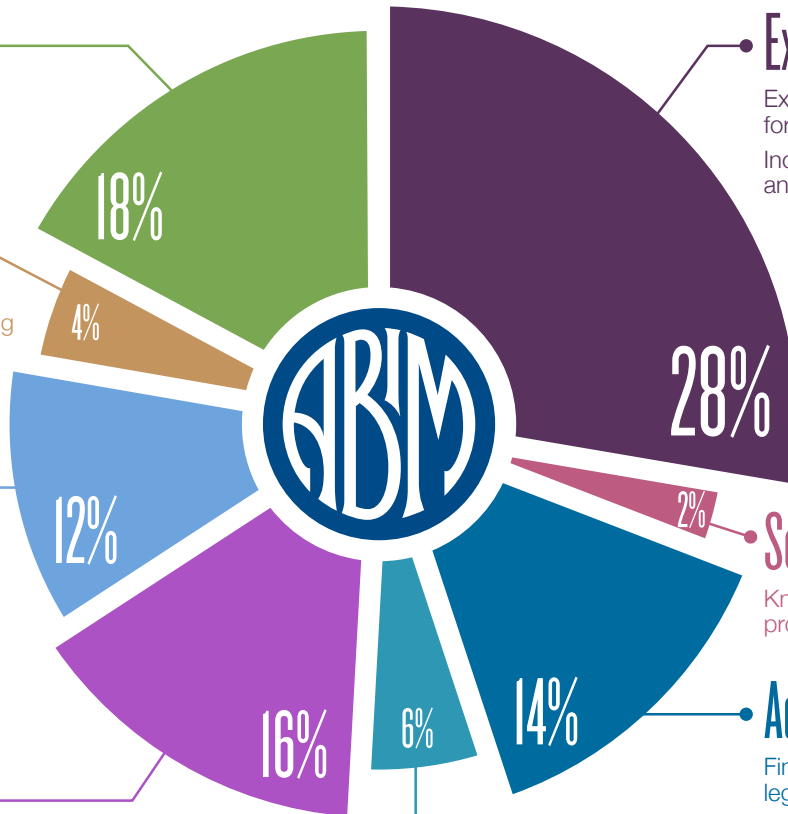

Establishment of the requirements for Certification and MOC. Including working with our subspecialty boards and medical societies.

Research

Research innovations in assessment and the value of Certification and MOC.

Physician Support and Outreach

Call center, physician communications, Academic Affairs and Web.

Exam Administration

Exam Delivery – includes seat costs for candidates and diplomates. Includes psychometric analysis and exam scoring.

Self-Assessment

Knowledge and practice assessment product development and approvals.

Administration

Finance, human resources, legal and building-related.

Governance

Board meeting costs and President's Office.

REVENUE $64.3 Million (FY 2020)

